“The Spirit in My Heart”

A Day of Reflection for Diocesan Priest Spiritual Directors
– Susan Baker & Frank Kaminski, SJ, presenters

“But with a spiritual director, I have to talk about what is in my heart. The examination of conscience isn’t the same for confession and for spiritual direction. For confession, I have to look at where I was lacking, where I lost patience, if I was greedy — that kind of thing, those concrete things that are sinful... But in spiritual direction, I must examine what is happening in my heart, where the Spirit is moving, if I felt desolation or consolation, if I am tired, why I am sad: These are things to talk about with the man or woman who is my spiritual director.” (Pope Francis, May 18, 2015)

Ignatian spirituality is based on discernment of spirits and the communal life of the Church; only in assisting and supporting one another can we truly understand the movements of God’s Spirit. This day for diocesan priests who are spiritual directors will provide input and discussion focusing on the importance of spiritual direction, supervision and discernment, and will also include liturgy, time for personal prayer and lunch.
